Darl Center’s Art Quilts & Fiber Art Show opened with Wearable Art Fashion Show

By ANDREA C. TURNER

The Darl Center for the Arts held its first major public event on March 15, a Wearable Art fashion show, to kick off its Art Quilts & Fiber Art Show, which ran through March 23. The event showcased leading fiber artists from around the world.

Due to the event’s popularity, organizer and emcee Darl Schaaff produced two showtimes: 6 p.m. and 8 p.m., both sold out, in his downstairs renovated ballroom and cabaret space at 5437 Broadway Avenue in Cleveland. Schaaff, a native of Ohio, re-located to Cleveland from Alaska in 2022, when he purchased the Broadway Free Library, a former Andrew Carnegie library, and began its renovation.
